Obituary

Lula B. Hunter was born in Salem, Arkansas, on August 19, 1928, to Arthur and Fannie Beavers. She was the second of eight children. She confessed her love for Christ at an early age and was baptized at Salem Baptist Church of Salem, Arkansas. She was educated at, El Dorado High School, in El Dorado, Arkansas.

On November 5, 1954, she was united in Holy Matrimony to James M. Hunter and to this union three girls were born. They set up residence in San Francisco, California and soon united with Friendship Institutional Baptist Church of San Francisco, California. In the early 1960s, Lula B. Hunter became a Deaconess, also that year she passed the nurse's test and other requirements and became a Licensed Vocational Nurse at UC San Francisco Medical Center. In 1973, the family relocated to Garden Grove, California. The family soon united with New Hope Baptist Church, Long Beach, California. Lula B. Hunter and her husband became active members of the church as they had at their previous church. She was a Deaconess, Sunday School Teacher for the Adult Women, sang in the Senior Choir, Vice President of Women's Mission Union (WMU), and former Mission Friends Director.

Lula B. Hunter was the Past Worthy Matron of Queen Esther Chapter #521, O.E.S (Northern California); Founder and Organizer of Ruth Chapter #763, O.E.S. (Southern California); Past Worthy Matron of Ruth Chapter #763, O.E.S. (Southern California); Past Worthy Grand Matron; Herald in Rising Sun Court No. 1, Amaranth; Past Worthy Grand Associate Matron; Past Noble Commandress; Anna Marie Court #7; and Past Grand Lecturer.

Due to health problems Lula B. Hunter relocated to Richmond California, and attended St. John Missionary Baptist Church, in Richmond, California, where she was involved in Sunday School, Women Missionary, and attended Prayer Meeting, and Bible Study.

Lula B. Hunter departed this life on December 27, 2013 and was preceded in death by her parents Arthur and Fannie Beavers; husband, James M. Hunter; daughter, Gloria D. Hunter; brother, Arlow Beavers; and two sisters, Queen E. Eutsey and Clara Bell. Allen.

Lula B. Hunter leaves to treasure her memories: her two daughters, Mattie P. Hunter of Garden Grove, California and Glendora "Gwen" Hunter of Richmond, California. Three grandchildren: James D. Hunter Sr., Kamisha L. Hunter-Smith, and Timothy J. Strinden. Seven great-grandchildren: Makayla Canidate, Tatyana Hunter, Briana Hunter, Alexis Hunter, Jus'Tyce Smith, James D. Hunter Jr., and Hunter Smith. Four sisters, Fannie Lowery of El Dorado, Arkansas; Idera Roberson of Bryant, Arkansas; Annie Easter of El Dorado, Arkansas; and Dolores Lewis of Daly City, California; as well as a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, Ruth Chapter #763, church family, and friends.

Home In Heaven

I am home in heaven dear ones, oh so happy and so bright.
There is perfect joy and beauty in this everlasting light.
All the pains and grief is over every restless tossing passed.
I am now at peace forever Safely home in Heaven at Last!
